Dear Mr. [redacted]

Please be advised that we will be notifying the Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia that we have made available or will make available to you matters occurring before a federal grand jury of the District of Columbia.

As you are aware, Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure requires that we notify the District Court of the names of government personnel to whom such disclosures have been made. Rule 6(e) also requires that we certify to the Court that you have been advised of our obligations of secrecy as to grand jury matters. In that regard, you are advised that you are not to disclose matters occurring before the grand jury except in accordance with the law and as directed by one of the Department of Justice attorneys assigned to the matter under investigation. You are further advised that you are not to utilize grand jury material for any purpose other than assisting an attorney for the Government in the performance of such attorney's duty to enforce federal criminal law.

Sincerely,
